Periods of furlough reckoned by Warrant Officers towards pension.

§ 2. Warrant Officers obtaining that rank after the 24th August 1872, can only reckon as service towards pension the following periods of leave, whether taken in or out of India :—

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 15 months | in | 12 years' | Departmental | Service. |
| 20 " | " | 14 " | | " |
| 24 " | " | 16 " | | " |

Those who were promoted to warrant rank before that date, are allowed to continue, if they prefer it, on the old rule, and reckon all leave in India as service, all out of India being deducted from their service for pension.

Illustration of the mode of computing service for pension in any case.

Furlough due how ascertained.

XXIV.—In computing the furlough on private affairs to which an officer who has already enjoyed some portion of such furlough will be entitled under these rules, it will be necessary to deduct the total amount of the furlough on private affairs of which he may have availed himself during his service from the total periods to which under Rule IX he can lay claim. The balance (within the limit of 8 years' total furlough on private affairs and medical certificate laid down in Rule XVI) will represent the leave to which he will be entitled on the expiration of not less than three years from his last return to duty.

Illustration.

(1).—An officer, who had obtained under the existing rules two years' furlough after ten years' service, returns to India on the date on which this order is promulgated. He accepts its conditions, and serves four years longer in India. On the expiration of that term, he can take one year's furlough, thus :—

| Leave to which that service entitles him | | ... | 3 " |
| Already enjoyed ... | ... | ... | 2 " |

(2).—An officer of four years' service has proceeded on sick certificate to England for 20 months, extended afterwards to two years. He returns, serves six years in India, takes two years' furlough, and returns to India about the time of the promulgation of these rules, which he accepts. He must serve four years before he can take an additional year's furlough, thus :—

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Total service up to return from furlough | ... | 14 years. |
| Total service in India ... | ... | 10 " |
| Furlough enjoyed on that service | ... | 2 " |

CHAPTER II.

General leave on private affairs and sick certificate in India.

Leave on private affairs or medical certificate limited to six months.

XXV.—An officer will be eligible, as at present, to take leave on private affairs or sick certificate anywhere in India for any period not exceeding six months, at the discretion of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, or of the Government under which he may be serving. During the entire period of his absence on this account, the officer will be entitled, as at present, to his full pay and a moiety of his staff salary. Leave taken under this rule will form no part of the eight years' aggregate furlough. If this indulgence should be taken advantage of for a third year consecutively, the officer will lose his staff appointment unless entitled to retain it under Rule II.

Pay as heretofore.

If taken for a third year consecutively, staff appointment forfeited.

If extended to 1 year on medical certificate reckons in the 8 years of Rule XVI.

XXVI.—Leave on sick certificate for a period exceeding six months, capable of extension, under renewed medical certificate, to a limit of one year, may be granted to any officer who, in the opinion of a Medical Board, may require it. Leave of this nature, taken after the promulgation of these rules, will be held to constitute a part of the maximum period of eight years' leave of absence to which an officer is entitled in his entire period of service, but will not be regarded as furlough, nor will it affect the intervals entitling to furlough laid down in Rule IX. During this leave the absentee will draw a moiety of his staff salary in addition to the pay of his rank. But if the 12 months be exceeded, the whole leave must be reckoned as furlough, and allowances be adjusted accordingly.

If extended over 1 year, reckons as furlough.

Short leave (not exceeding 3 months) allowed as heretofore.

XXVII.—Short leave not exceeding three months on private affairs or sick certificate, may also be taken to sea, on the above condition, but absence from India for any longer period will be treated as furlough.

XXVIII.—All general leave taken in India counts as part of the leave reckoning against service for pension.

CHAPTER III.

Privilege Leave.

Limited to 60 days in each year.

XXIX.—Privilege leave may be granted, as at present, for sixty days in each year to all officers in military employ, without deduction from the salaries and emoluments drawn by them.

When extended.

General leave, in extension of privilege leave, can only be granted on the ground of sickness, or some other serious emergency which could not have been foreseen when the officer proceeded on privilege leave. Privilege leave may, however, be converted into general leave with the sanction of the Commander-in-Chief or the Government.

90 days allowed from certain stations.

XXX.—In the case of the stations noted in the margin, privilege leave may, as at present, be granted for ninety days to officers of local Corps, or of Corps which are usually employed in one or other of the districts named.

| Shillong. | Dera Ismael Khan |
| Erinpoora. | Dera Ghazee Khan. |
| Deolee | Rajanpore. |
| Khairwara. | Jacobabad. |
| Khotra. | |

No restriction as to place.

XXXI.—An officer is at liberty to proceed wherever he may desire on privilege leave, provided he can ensure his return before the expiration of his leave.

Must be apart from furlough or other leave.

XXXII.—Privilege leave cannot be taken in continuation of furlough, nor can furlough be obtained in continuation of privilege leave. If furlough be obtained by an officer while absent on privilege leave, the privilege leave will be converted into general leave, the officer for that period sacrificing a moiety of his staff salary.

Military Officers in Civil Employ.

XXXIII.—Those Military Officers (including Warrant Officers who hold Honorary, Veteran, or Unattached Commissions) in Civil or Political employ who may elect these rules when they take leave in India come, as respect periods of leave obtainable and amount of pay to be granted, under the Civil leave rules. When they take leave out of India, they come under the Military leave rules.

For preparatory or subsidiary leave, see Note (4) of Rule XVIII.

Subsidiary Rule.

Election of these rules to be final.

XXXIV.—Officers of the Indian Military and Medical Services will be required generally to notifiy their intention to accept these rules, or to adhere to those now existing, on the first occasion of their taking furlough or general leave after the publication of this order. Such election must be considered final, and under no plea whatever will an officer be subsequently relieved from the choice thus made.

Fund subscription during furlough.

§2. Officers going home under these Rules will pay English rates of subscription only to the Military Fund.

Benefits allowed to those who elect existing rules.

§3. Officers who may determine to abide by existing rules, will be allowed to proceed on furlough on the conditions laid down in Rules VII, VIII and XIII, to the extent to which they may be entitled under the Furlough Regulations of 1854, or of 1796, whichever of the two they may have elected, and on the rates of pay contemplated in those Regulations, but retaining their appointments. The principle laid down in Rule XV must, however, be applied in those cases.

Previous service of officers under 1796 Rules how reckoned.

§4. If an officer under the Furlough Rules of 1796 elects the present rules, his service for pension will be reckoned under the former rules up to 1st July 1868, and thenceforward under the rules of 1868; and the fact of the officer having been on furlough on 1st July 1868 and not then having elected the rules of 1868, will not affect the case. All periods of leave out of Indian limits taken previous to 1st July 1868, will be wholly excluded from his service for pension; but he may reckon towards pension periods of leave taken subsequent to that date, according to the length of his service counting for pension, as shewn in Rule XXIII.

Retirement under 1796 Rules not affected.

His election of these Furlough Rules in no way affects his right to retire under the Pension Rules of 1796.

Administrator General entitled in preference to creditor, non-universal legatee or friend.

The Administrator General of the Presidency shall be deemed by all the Courts in the Presidency to have a right to letters of administration in preference to that of any person merely on the ground of his being a creditor, a legatee other than an universal legatee, or a friend of the deceased.

When administration of estates of persons other than Hindús, &c., is to be by Administrator General.

16. If any person, not being a Hindú, Muhammadan or Buddhist, or a person exempted under the Indian Succession Act, 1865, section three hundred and thirty-two, from the operation of that Act, shall have died, whether within any of the said Presidencies or not, and whether before or after the passing of this Act, and shall have left assets exceeding at the date of the death or within one year thereafter the value of one thousand rupees within any of the said Presidencies, and if no person to whom the Court would have jurisdiction to commit administration of such assets has, within one month after his death, applied in such Presidency for probate of his Will, or for any letters of administration of his estate, the Administrator General of the Presidency in which such assets are, shall, within a reasonable time after he has had notice of the death of such person, and of his having left such assets as aforesaid, take such proceedings as may be necessary to obtain from the High Court at the Presidency town, letters of administration to the effects of such person, either generally or with a Will annexed, as the case may require.

Whenever the Administrator General of the Presidency takes proceedings under this section, it shall be sufficient if the petition required by section two hundred and forty-six of the Indian Succession Act, 1865, states

(a) the time and place of the deceased's death to the best of the petitioner's knowledge or belief,

(b) that the deceased left some property within the Presidency as hereinbefore defined, and

(c) the amount or value of assets which are likely to come into the petitioner's hands.

upon the application of any person interested in such assets, or in the due administration thereof, either as a creditor, legatee, next-of-kin or otherwise, or Administration to effects of Hindús, &c., when granted under this section.

Provided that, in the case of an application being made under this section for letters of administration to the effects of a deceased Hindú, Muhammadan or Buddhist, or person exempted as aforesaid, the Court may refuse to grant letters of administration to any person, if it be satisfied that such grant is unnecessary for the protection of the assets, and in such case the Court shall make such order as to the costs of the application as it thinks just.

the Court may authorize and enjoin the Administrator General to collect and take possession of such property, and to hold or deposit or invest the same according to the orders and directions of the Court, and in default of any such orders or directions, according to the provisions of this Act so far as the same are applicable to such property; and in case letters of administration of any such property are afterwards granted to the Administrator General, the said commission of one per centum shall be deemed a part payment of the commission payable to the Administrator General under the letters of administration.

Any order of Court made under the provisions of this section, shall entitle the Administrator General to collect and to take possession of such property, and, if necessary, to maintain a suit for the recovery thereof.

the Court shall grant letters of administration to the Administrator General.

Administrator General in certain cases to secure and distribute the effects of soldiers.

21. The Administrator General shall, when duly authorized or required so to do by the Military Secretary to Government, secure and distribute the assets of the estate and effects of any officer, soldier, or other person subject to any Articles of War, in all cases in which such estate and effects do not exceed in the whole five hundred rupees, charging the estate with a commission of three per centum only.

Proviso.

23. Nothing in this Act is intended to preclude the Administrator General from applying to the Court for letters of administration in any case, within the period of one month from the death of the deceased.

After revocation, letters of administration granted to Administrator General to be deemed as to him to have been voidable only.

24. If any letters of administration granted to the Administrator General under the provisions of this Act, be revoked or recalled, the same shall, so far as regards the Administrator General and all persons acting under his authority in pursuance thereof, be deemed to have been only voidable; except as to any act done by any such Administrator General or other person as aforesaid, after notice of a Will or of any other fact which would render such letters void:

25. If any letters of administration granted under this Act be revoked upon the production and proof of a Will, all payments made or acts done by or under the authority of the Administrator General in pursuance of such letters of administration prior to the revocation thereof, which would have been valid under any letters of administration lawfully granted to him with such Will annexed, shall be deemed valid notwithstanding such revocation.

Time within which application to revoke such administration must be made.

Provided that no letters of administration granted to the Administrator General shall be revoked or recalled for the cause aforesaid, except in cases in which a Will or codicil of the deceased is proved in the Presidency, unless the application for that purpose be made within six months after the grant to the Administrator General, and the Court be satisfied that there has been no unreasonable delay in making the application, or in transmitting the authority under which the application is made.

Costs of obtaining administration, &c., may, on revocation, be ordered to be paid to Administrator General out of assets.

27. If any letters of administration granted to the Administrator General in pursuance of this Act be revoked, the Court may order the costs of obtaining such letters of administration, and the whole or any part of any commission which would otherwise have been payable under this Act, together with the costs of the Administrator General in any proceedings taken to obtain such revocation, to be paid to or retained by the Administrator General out of any assets belonging to the estate:

Provided that, in any such case, when the deceased has left a Will appointing an executor, and probate of the Will has been granted by any Court in the Presidency to such executor within three months after the death, or when the widow or next-of-kin has, within one month if resident within the Presidency, or within three months if resident beyond the Presidency, obtained from any such Court letters of administration to the estate and effects of the deceased, then and in either of such cases the Administrator General shall (without prejudice to the provisions contained in sections seventeen and eighteen) not be entitled to receive or retain any commission out of any assets belonging to such estate and situate within the jurisdiction of the Court by which probate or administration has been granted as last aforesaid.

Exclusion of creditors who have not proved, from assets with which a dividend is made.

What expenses, &c., commission is to cover.

It is therefore enacted that one-half of such commission shall be payable to and retained by such Administrator General upon the collection of the assets, and the other half thereof shall be payable to the Administrator General who distributes any assets in the due course of administration, and may be retained by him upon such distribution.

The following Act of the Governor General of India in Council received the assent of His Excellency the Governor General on the 21th February 1874, and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. III OF 1874.

An Act to explain and amend the law relating to certain Married Women, and for other purposes.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make such provision as hereinafter appears for the enjoyment of wages and earnings by women married before the first day of January 1866, and for insurances on lives by persons married before or after that day:

And whereas by the Indian Succession Act, 1865, section four, it is enacted that no person shall by marriage acquire any interest in the property of the person whom he or she marries, nor become incapable of doing any act in respect of his or her own property, which he or she could have done, if unmarried:

And whereas by force of the said Act all women to whose marriages it applies are absolute owners of all property vested in, or acquired by, them, and their husbands do not by their marriage acquire any interest in such property, but the said Act does not protect such husbands from liabilities on account of the debts of their wives contracted before marriage, and does not expressly provide for the enforcement of claims by or against such wives;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

I.—Preliminary.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Married Women's Property Act, 1874:"

Extent and application.

2. It extends to the whole of British India, and, so far as regards subjects of Her Majesty, to the dominions of Princes and States in India in alliance with Her Majesty.

But nothing herein contained applies to any married woman who at the time of her marriage professed the Hindú, Muhammadan, Buddhist, Síkh, or Jaina religion, or whose husband, at the time of such marriage, professed any of those religions.

And the Governor General in Council may from time to time, by order, either retrospectively from the passing of this Act or prospectively, exempt from the operation of all or any of the provisions of this Act the members of any race, sect or tribe, or part of a race, sect or tribe, to whom he may consider it impossible or inexpedient to apply such provisions.

The Governor General in Council may also revoke any such order, but not so that the revocation shall have any retrospective effect.

All orders and revocations under this section shall be published in the Gazette of India.

The fourth section of the said Indian Succession Act shall not apply, and shall be deemed never to have applied, to any marriage one or both of the parties to which professed at the time of the marriage, the Hindú, Muhammadan, Buddhist, Síkh or Jaina religion.

Commencement.

3. This Act shall come into force on the passing thereof.

II.—Married Women's wages and earnings.

Married women's earnings to be their separate property.

4. The wages and earnings of any married woman acquired or gained by her after the passing of this Act, in any employment, occupation or trade carried on by her and not by her husband, and also any money or other property so acquired by her through the exercise of any literary, artistic or scientific skill, and all savings from and investments of such wages, earnings and property, shall be deemed to be her separate property, and her receipts alone shall be good discharges for such wages, earnings and property.

III.—Insurances by Wives and Husbands.

Married woman may effect policy of insurance.

5. Any married woman may effect a policy of insurance on her own behalf and independently of her husband; and the same and all benefit thereof, if expressed on the face of it to be so effected, shall enure as her separate property, and the contract evidenced by such policy shall be as valid as if made with an unmarried woman.

Insurance by husband for benefit of wife.

6. A policy of insurance effected by any married man on his own life, and expressed on the face of it to be for the benefit of his wife, or of his wife and children, or any of them, shall enure and be deemed to be a trust for the benefit of his wife, or of his wife and children, or any of them, according to the interest so expressed, and shall not, so long as any object of the trust remains, be subject to the control of the husband, or to his creditors, or form part of his estate.

When the sum secured by the policy becomes payable, it shall, unless special trustees are duly appointed to receive and hold the same, be paid to the Official Trustee of the Presidency in which the office at which the insurance was effected is situate, and shall be received and held by him upon the trusts expressed in the policy, or such of them as are then existing.

And in reference to such sum he shall stand in the same position in all respects as if he had been duly appointed trustee thereof by a High Court, under Act No. XVII of 1864 (to constitute an Office of Official Trustee), section ten.

Nothing herein contained shall operate to destroy or impede the right of any creditor to be paid out of the proceeds of any policy of assurance which may have been effected with intent to defraud creditors.

IV.—Legal proceedings by and against Married Women.

Married women may take legal proceedings.

7. A married woman may maintain a suit in her own name for the recovery of property of any description which, by force of the said Indian Succession Act, 1865, or of this Act, is her separate property; and she shall have, in her own name, the same remedies, both civil and criminal, against all persons, for the protection and security of such property, as if she were unmarried, and she shall be liable to such suits, processes and orders in respect of such property as she would be liable to if she were unmarried.

Wife's liability for postnuptial debts.

8. If a married woman (whether married before or after the first day of January 1866) possesses separate property, and if any person enters into a contract with her with reference to such property, or on the faith that her obligation arising out of such contract will be satisfied out of her separate property, such person shall be entitled to sue her, and, to the extent of her separate property, to recover against her whatever he might have recovered in such suit had she been unmarried at the date of the contract and continued unmarried at the execution of the decree:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall affect the liability of a husband for debts contracted by his wife's agency, express or implied, or render a married woman liable to arrest or to imprisonment in execution of a decree.

V.—Husband's liability for Wife's debts.

Husband not liable for wife's antenuptial debts.

9. A husband married after the thirty-first day of December 1865, shall not by reason only of such marriage be liable to the debts of his wife contracted before marriage, but the wife shall be liable to be sued for, and shall, to the extent of her separate property, be liable to satisfy such debts as if she had continued unmarried:

Proviso.

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall affect any suit instituted before the passing of this Act, nor invalidate any contract into which a husband may, before the passing of this Act, have entered in consideration of his wife's antenuptial debts.

RESOLUTION.

The 6th March 1874.

READ the following papers relating to the adoption of a uniform system in the orthography of Indian proper names when rendered in the Roman character :—

Letter from the Government of India, Department of Agriculture, Revenue, and Commerce, No. $\frac{5}{5}$, dated 28th February 1872.

Ditto ditto, No. $\frac{14}{104}$, dated 17th October 1872, and enclosure.
Letter to ditto, No. 713, dated 12th February 1873.
Letter from ditto, No. 350, dated 26th August 1873, and enclosure.
Resolution by ditto, No. $\frac{3}{537}$, dated 26th August 1873.

His Excellency the Governor-General in Council has intimated that, while Her Majesty's Government have desired that the system of transliteration prescribed by the Government of India shall as a general rule be applied to names of places, they have also directed that the established spelling of names of well-known places should be retained. His Excellency in Council also desires to leave considerable latitude to Local Governments in respect to the extent to which the change should be immediately introduced. Accordingly a list of names of the less well-known places, properly transliterated, is under preparation. In the meantime the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to direct the immediate publication of the following list of well-known names, of which the spelling has been so long settled by usage, that it is not desirable to make any change. All officers under this Government are enjoined to follow in their official communications the spelling given below.

The opportunity is taken of publishing a list of certain vernacular terms relating to offices, tenures, agriculture, &c., which are ordinarily used in English correspondence, in which the spelling now given should be adhered to by all officers.

SIR,—In acknowledging the receipt of your letter No. 4501, dated 27th December 1873, I am directed to state that fractions of the anna should, as far as may be convenient, be avoided; but that it is not desirable that the column for pies should be altogether abolished from the public accounts. RESOLUTION.—Under Act X of 1862, any deed, instrument, or writing made by or on behalf of Government was under certain conditions exempt from stamp duty. Act X of 1862 was repealed by Act No. XVIII of 1869, which came into operation from 1st January 1870, and the exemption in favour of such instruments was thereby withdrawn. This change in the law appears to have been overlooked in many instances, and deeds executed on behalf of Government in favour of purchasers of waste lands have been executed on unstamped paper.

2. A question having been raised as to the best means of giving validity to documents thus executed, His Excellency the Governor-General in Council is pleased to point out that they may be stamped by Collectors in exercise of the powers conferred on them by Section 24, Clause (a), of the General Stamp Act XVIII of 1869, on payment of the proper penalty, and that the penalty incurred may be remitted under Section 42 of the Act.

3. The Governor-General in Council is accordingly pleased to suggest that the holders of such unstamped documents should be informed by notification in the various local Gazettes, and, when practicable, by notice served on each of them, that applications to have the documents stamped in the manner above set forth will be received by the Collectors having jurisdiction to a certain date, and that, if applications be not made within the prescribed time, the remission of the penalty imposed will be liable to be refused.

ORDERED that the foregoing Resolution be communicated to the several local Governments and Administrations for information and guidance.

RESOLUTION.

Active operations for the relief of distress having now commenced, the Governor-General in Council reminds local officers that it is their duty to see that the arrangements for the relief of distress are adequate within the area under their charge, and that they will be held responsible that no deaths from starvation occur, which could have been avoided by any exertion or arrangement within their power and the means placed at their command.

2. His Excellency in Council is satisfied that all officers have cheerfully accepted this responsibility, and that they will perform the arduous task imposed upon them with the zeal, ability, and self-sacrifice which have always distinguished the servants of the Crown and of the East India Company in India in times of difficulty and danger.

3. The instructions to Relief Committees issued on the 24th of January last are republished herewith, with some modifications made in communication with the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal and the Central Relief Committee.

4. The duty of superintending the operations of Relief Committees rests with the sub-divisional and district officers under the general instructions of Commissioners of divisions.

5. Relief Committees have been authorised by the instructions to adopt any measures necessary to meet sudden and severe distress. The same authority is given to local officers under similar circumstances. Where the danger is sudden, officers must act promptly to the best of their power, and not be satisfied with making reports to their official superiors.

6. The instructions leave much to the discretion of Relief Committees, and to that of the local officers of Government, under whose supervision they will act, as regards the manner in which distress is to be met.

7. The Government has not prescribed the invariable use of any test, either by labor or by the distribution of cooked food, for the purpose of determining who are fit objects for relief. Such tests are desirable and necessary under certain circumstances. It is right that able-bodied men, accustomed to labor, should, as a general rule, be required to work in return for the food or money supplied to them. It is desirable that light work should be found for others where this can be arranged profitably and without obliging large numbers of people to leave their homes. In dealing with certain classes of distress, especially in towns, the issue of relief in cooked food may be useful as a test. But stringent tests are inapplicable to those limited tracts of country where, owing to the great failure of the crops and the absence of private trade, the Government have, in accordance with their Resolution of the 7th of November last, assumed the task of importing grain for sale and distribution to the people.

8. In such tracts the difficulty will be not to prevent undeserving applicants from being relieved, but to ensure that sufficient supplies reach those who require them; and, in addition to the modes of relief and the provision for the sale of grain specified in the instructions to Relief Committees, grain should be freely advanced to zemindars and mahajuns under the instructions already issued by the Government of Bengál, as well as to cultivating ryots, where there is a reasonable probability of repayment, at the discretion of the local officers and with a due regard to the maintenance of a sufficient reserve.

INSTRUCTIONS TO RELIEF COMMITTEES.

I.
ORGANIZATION OF COMMITTEES.

There will be three classes of Committees,—first, the Central Committee at Calcutta; second, District Committees; third, Sub-divisional Committees. The latter will generally be organised for a sub-division, but where necessary more than one of such Committees may be appointed in a sub-division.

2. The Central Relief Committee at Calcutta has been organised under the immediate supervision of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal.

3. The District Relief Committees have been, or will be, organised in such districts as the Commissioner of the division may think desirable. The Magistrate and Collector of the district will usually be the Chairman of the District Committee, and will arrange for the appointment of the members.

4. The Sub-divisional Committees will be organised wherever the Magistrate and Collector of a district considers it desirable. The Sub-divisional Officer will usually be the Chairman of the Sub-divisional Committee, and will arrange for the appointment of members in communication with the Collector of the district.

II.
DUTIES OF COMMITTEES.

The functions of the Central Relief Committee will be to collect subscriptions and distribute them to the local Committees in such amount and for such objects as they may consider desirable, and to receive reports of the expenditure of the funds supplied by them.

2. The functions of the District Relief Committees will be to collect subscriptions, but so as not to interfere with the resources of the Sub-divisional Committees, to supply the Sub-divisional Committees with money, and to receive their reports.

3. The Sub-divisional Relief Committees will organise the agency for the relief of distress within their areas. They will be authorised to delegate any portion of their duty to individual members, and to employ Sub-Committees, or any other agency which, with a view to local circumstances, they may think best suited for the purpose. The Sub-divisional Committees and the Sub-Committees will arrange that the villages within their several circles shall be constantly inspected (once a week at the least) for the purpose of ascertaining whether the relief operations have been properly carried on, and whether there are any other places in the circle in need of relief. For this purpose they will apply through the Collector of the district for such additional assistance, whether European or Native, as they may require.

The principal functions of the Sub-divisional Committees and the Sub-Committees will be—

(a.)—To collect subscriptions and to distribute the resources which will be at their disposal from local subscriptions, from the contributions of Government, and from the grants received from District Committees.

(b.)—To distribute for relief purposes grain received from local sources or Government depôts.

(c.)—To transport grain to convenient places, and to provide for its proper storage.

(d.)—To distribute gratuitous relief to persons in need of it and unable to work.

(e.)—To provide useful employment for those people who are in need, and are able to work, by instituting minor relief works and providing other employment, such as spinning, weaving, husking rice, &c. Sub-divisional Committees will have information of the Government public works in their neighbourhood, in order that laborers may be despatched to those works, together with their families, if desirable.

(f.)—To provide in such manner as may be considered the best, in each particular locality, for the relief of persons whose caste usages and feelings preclude the application of a labor test—women of good family and others—who may be in great distress. Relief for this class of persons may be afforded either wholly gratuitously, or partly gratuitously, by the sale of grain under the market rates, or, with due precautions, by the advance of money or grain to be subsequently repaid.

(g.)—If a serious deficiency of grain in any part of their district is apprehended, which the trade is unable to supply, the Sub-divisional Committee may, under instructions from the Collector of the district, make arrangements for the sale of grain from Government Stores. The arrangement should, as a rule, be made through the agency of the traders, which will probably be available everywhere. The selling price should be fixed at that of the nearest large mart, where supplies are readily brought in by railroad or river, together with such addition representing the cost of transport as may be considered proper. Sales should be stopped as soon as the local trade receives sufficient supplies, and any competition with the local trade should be carefully avoided. This rule will not interfere with the sale of rice under the market rate as a means of relief under clause (f) to persons whose cases have been enquired into by the Committees or their officers.

(h.)—The congregation of large masses of people away from their homes for the purpose of relief should be avoided. Every village in which general distress exists should, so far as is practicable, be dealt with separately as regards relief works and the distribution of gratuitous relief. The acceptance of cooked food should not be insisted upon as an invariable test to be applied to all who require relief. In the very distressed districts such a test would generally be inapplicable. It may be necessary to establish poor-houses in some places, such as considerable towns. In those houses food might be distributed cooked or uncooked as may be most convenient. Generally speaking, those who are unable from illness to cook their own food should be provided for in hospitals.

III.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Nothing in these Rules is intended to preclude Relief Committees from adopting any measures necessary to relieve sudden and severe distress wherever it may occur, reporting the measures they have taken at once for the approval of superior authority.

The 9th March 1874.—UNDER Section 69 of the Indian Registration Act, 1871, the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal is pleased to direct that Rule 132 of the Registration Rules, published at page 1438 of Part I of the Calcutta Gazette of the 24th December 1873, be cancelled; and that the following rules be substituted for those now bearing the same numbers:—

Rule 118.—Fees levied on documents presented for registration (whether registration has been deferred or not) shall not be retained in the personal custody of any registering officer for any time longer than may be absolutely necessary. They shall be dealt with in the same way as other public money, and be paid into the nearest treasury. From district and sub-divisional offices the fees shall be remitted to the treasury daily. From rural offices they shall be sent to the treasury at such intervals as the Registrar shall direct. In all cases remittances to the treasury should be accompanied by the chalan book, duly filled up in duplicate. One copy of each chalan will then be kept by the treasury officer, and the other returned with his signature.

Rule 129.—In order to provide for refunds being made without unnecessary delay, the Local Government will, on the recommendation of the Inspector-General, allow to each registering officer a permanent advance of Rs. 20. Whenever there is a change of incumbency, the relieving officer shall also address to the Accountant-General an acknowledgment in the following form, No. 151 of the Accountant-General's series, a supply of which should always be kept at hand:—

BURDWAN RELIEF COMMITTEE.

First Meeting.

Proceedings of a meeting held in the Burdwan Municipal Office on the 21st February 1874 to consider whether relief measures are to be undertaken at once or not.

PRESENT:

Mr. E. H. Whinfield, Chairman.
" R. H. Ruddock.
" J. Cockburn.
" R. T. Sevestre.
Baboo Bissessur Malia.
" Mohendro Nath Pundit.
" Moteelal Chowdhry.
" Dwarkanath Mitter.
" Gopal Chunder Sen.
" Sunjeeb Chunder Chatterjee.
Moonshee Newabjan.
Baboo Bogolanund Mookerjee, Secretary.

The Chairman put it to the meeting whether the time had come to distribute relief in any portion of the district. Mr. Cockburn brought forward a report submitted by the head-constable of out-post police in thannah Boodbood, wherein he stated that the people of certain villages in thannah Boodbood appeared to be suffering from not being able to purchase grain even when they tendered money for it. The report of the head-constable was so vague that nothing definite could be ascertained from it. The members present were unanimously of opinion that it would be premature to distribute relief at present, but that preliminary arrangements should be made for preparing depôts for the storage of grain.

The following places are therefore selected for depôts :—

1. Khanoo.—In the confines of thannahs Burdwan and Boodbood.
2. Ghooskara.—In the confines of thannahs Aooshgram, Sahebgunge, and Mungulcote.
3. Satgatchea.—In the confines of Burdwan, Culna, and Gangooriah.
4. Paltea.—In thannah Ketoogram.
5. Oochalun.—In the confines of thannahs Royna and Khundghose.

It was further resolved that another meeting would be held in a fortnight.

E. H. WHINFIELD, Chairman.

RAJSHAHYE DISTRICT RELIEF.

No. 1449, dated Beauleah, the 21st February 1874.

From—W. H. D'OYLY, ESQ., Chairman, District Relief Committee,
To—The Secretary to the Central Relief Committee, Calcutta.

I HAVE the honor to report for your information that yesterday I convened a meeting of the district relief committee which was very well attended. I read to the committee the several letters of Government bearing on the subject of relief, and also the instructions for the guidance of committees. I also gave them what information I could regarding the state of the district; and put before them my letter No. 305, dated 18th instant, to your address, containing particulars regarding the sites for relief centres, names of members of the committees, &c., &c.

2. The following resolutions were passed, viz. :—

1st.—That chairman of the several sub-divisional committees be asked to convene meetings of the principal zemindars and others residing in their sub-divisions on as early a date as possible, and to collect subscriptions and report the result to the district committee.

2nd.—To appoint at once two superintendents, one for the Beauleah and one for the Bhurind sub-division, and for the present to send them both under Mr. Manisty's supervision to collect information in the Bhurind, and submit copies of their diaries to the chairman of the Bhurind sub-division weekly. The chairman of the Bhurind sub-division, on receipt of these diaries, to send a report to the chairman of the district committee, adding a memorandum showing what measures have been taken. Any urgent case of distress to be reported immediately to the chairman of the sub-divisional committee, who will take action at once, reporting to the district committee what he has done.

3rd.—That the chairman of sub-divisional committees be requested to convene meetings at least twice in each month, or oftener if necessary.

4th.—That the sub-divisional committees be empowered to add to their number, reporting to the district committee the names of any gentlemen they may nominate.

5th.—That a copy of these proceedings be forwarded to the chairman of each sub-divisional committee.

3. Mr. Manisty, who is the chairman of the Bhurind committee, is now at Tannore, and has rendered considerable assistance by riding about the country in the vicinity and inquiring carefully into the condition of the people.

Relief operations will probably first have to be commenced in the vicinity of Tearapara (in Godagaree thannah) and of Saepara (in the Tannore thannah), though for some little time to come I hope that they will be necessary only in a few isolated cases. Work will be provided wherever it is required; sub-divisional committees will be requested to apportion off the relief work among sub-committees in different parts of their sub-divisions.

Acts of the Legislative Council of India.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

[Second Publication.]

The following Act of the Governor-General of India in Council received the assent of His Excellency the Governor-General on the 24th February 1874, and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. III OF 1874.

An Act to explain and amend the law relating to certain Married Women, and for other purposes.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make such provision as hereinafter appears for the enjoyment of wages and earnings by women married before the first day of January 1866, and for insurances on lives by persons married before or after that day:

And whereas by the Indian Succession Act, 1865, section four, it is enacted that no person shall by marriage acquire any interest in the property of the person whom he or she marries, nor become incapable of doing any act in respect of his or her own property, which he or she could have done, if unmarried:

And whereas by force of the said Act all women to whose marriages it applies are absolute owners of all property vested in, or acquired by, them, and their husbands do not by their marriage acquire any interest in such property, but the said Act does not protect such husbands from liabilities on account of the debts of their wives contracted before marriage, and does not expressly provide for the enforcement of claims by or against such wives;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

I.—Preliminary.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Married Women's Property Act, 1874."

Extent and application.

2. It extends to the whole of British India, and, so far as regards subjects of Her Majesty, to the dominions of Princes and States in India in alliance with Her Majesty.

But nothing herein contained applies to any married woman who at the time of her marriage professed the Hindu, Muhammadan, Buddhist, Sikh, or Jaina religion, or whose husband, at the time of such marriage, professed any of those religions.

And the Governor-General in Council may from time to time, by order, either retrospectively from the passing of this Act or prospectively, exempt from the operation of all or any of the provisions of this Act the members of any race, sect or tribe, or part of a race, sect or tribe, to whom he may consider it impossible or inexpedient to apply such provisions.

The Governor-General in Council may also revoke any such order, but not so that the revocation shall have any retrospective effect.

All orders and revocations under this section shall be published in the Gazette of India.

The fourth section of the said Indian Succession Act shall not apply, and shall be deemed never to have applied, to any marriage one or both of the parties to which professed at the time of the marriage, the Hindu, Muhammadan, Buddhist, Sikh, or Jaina religion.

Commencement.

3. This Act shall come into force on the passing thereof.

II.—Married Women's wages and earnings.

Married women's earnings to be their separate property.

4. The wages and earnings of any married women acquired or gained by her after the passing of this Act, in any employment, occupation, or trade carried on by her and not by her husband, and also any money or other property so acquired by her through the exercise of any literary, artistic, or scientific skill,

and all savings from and investments of such wages, earnings, and property,

shall be deemed to be her separate property, and her receipts alone shall be good discharges for such wages, earnings, and property.

III.—Insurances by Wives and Husbands.

Married woman may effect policy of insurance.

5. Any married woman may effect a policy of insurance on her own behalf and independently of her husband; and the same and all benefit thereof, if expressed on the face of it to be so effected, shall enure as her separate property, and the contract evidenced by such policy shall be as valid as if made with an unmarried woman.

Insurance by husband for benefit of wife.

6. A policy of insurance effected by any married man on his own life, and expressed on the face of it to be for the benefit of his wife, or of his wife and children, or any of them, shall enure and be deemed to be a trust for the benefit of his wife, or of his wife and children, or any of them, according to the interest so expressed, and shall not, so long as any object of the trust remains, be subject to the control of the husband, or to his creditors, or form part of his estate.

When the sum secured by the policy becomes payable, it shall, unless special trustees are duly appointed to receive and hold the same, be paid to the Official Trustee of the Presidency in which the office at which the insurance was effected is situate, and shall be received and held by him upon the trusts expressed in the policy, or such of them as are then existing.

And in reference to such sum he shall stand in the same position in all respects as if he had been duly appointed trustee thereof by a High Court, under Act No. XVII of 1864 (to constitute an Office of Official Trustee), section ten.

Nothing herein contained shall operate to destroy or impede the right of any creditor to be paid out of the proceeds of any policy of assurance which may have been effected with intent to defraud creditors.

IV.—Legal proceedings by and against Married Women.

Married women may take legal proceedings.

7. A married woman may maintain a suit in her own name for the recovery of property of any description which, by force of the said Indian Succession Act, 1865, or of this Act, is her separate property; and she shall have, in her own name, the same remedies, both civil and criminal, against all persons, for the protection and security of such property, as if she were unmarried, and she shall be liable to such suits, processes and orders in respect of such property as she would be liable to if she were unmarried.

Wife's liability for post-nuptial debts.

8. If a married woman (whether married before or after the first day of January 1866) possesses separate property, and if any person enters into a contract with her with reference to such property, or on the faith that her obligation arising out of such contract will be satisfied out of her separate property, such person shall be entitled to sue her, and, to the extent of her separate property, to recover against her whatever he might have recovered in such suit had she been unmarried at the date of the contract and continued unmarried at the execution of the decree:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall affect the liability of a husband for debts contracted by his wife's agency, express or implied, or render a married woman liable to arrest or to imprisonment in execution of a decree.

V.—Husband's liability for Wife's debts.

Husband not liable for wife's antenuptial debts.

9. A husband married after the thirty-first day of December 1865 shall not by reason only of such marriage be liable to the debts of his wife contracted before marriage, but the wife shall be liable to be sued for, and shall, to the extent of her separate property, be liable to satisfy such debts as if she had continued unmarried:

Proviso.

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall affect any suit instituted before the passing of this Act, nor invalidate any contract into which a husband may, before the passing of this Act, have entered in consideration of his wife's antenuptial debts.

RESOLUTION.

The 6th March 1874.

READ the following papers relating to the adoption of a uniform system in the orthography of Indian proper names when rendered in the Roman character :—

Letter from the Government of India, Department of Agriculture, Revenue, and Commerce, No. $\frac{4}{64}$, dated 28th February 1872.

| Ditto | ditto, | No. $\frac{14}{108}$, dated 17th October 1872, and enclosure. |
| Letter to | ditto, | No. 713, dated 12th February 1873. |
| Letter from | ditto, | No. 350, dated 26th August 1873, and enclosure. |
| Resolution by | ditto, | No. $\frac{4}{147}$, dated 26th August 1873. |

His Excellency the Governor-General in Council has intimated that, while Her Majesty's Government have desired that the system of transliteration prescribed by the Government of India shall as a general rule be applied to names of places, they have also directed that the established spelling of names of well-known places should be retained. His Excellency in Council also desires to leave considerable latitude to Local Governments in respect to the extent to which the change should be immediately introduced. Accordingly a list of names of the less well-known places, properly transliterated, is under preparation. In the meantime the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to direct the immediate publication of the following list of well-known names, of which the spelling has been so long settled by usage, that it is not desirable to make any change. All officers under this Government are enjoined to follow in their official communications the spelling given below.

The opportunity is taken of publishing a list of certain vernacular terms relating to offices, tenures, agriculture, &c., which are ordinarily used in English correspondence, in which the spelling now given should be adhered to by all officers.

RESOLUTION.—Under Act X of 1862, any deed, instrument, or writing made by or on behalf of Government was under certain conditions exempt from stamp duty. Act X of 1862 was repealed by Act No. XVIII of 1869, which came into operation from 1st January 1870, and the exemption in favour of such instruments was thereby withdrawn. This change in the law appears to have been overlooked in many instances, and deeds executed on behalf of Government in favour of purchasers of waste lands have been executed on unstamped paper.

2. A question having been raised as to the best means of giving validity to documents thus executed, His Excellency the Governor-General in Council is pleased to point out that they may be stamped by Collectors in exercise of the powers conferred on them by Section 24, Clause (a) of the General Stamp Act XVIII of 1869, on payment of the proper penalty, and that the penalty incurred may be remitted under Section 42 of the Act.

3. The Governor-General in Council is accordingly pleased to suggest that the holders of such unstamped documents should be informed by notification in the various local Gazettes, and, when practicable, by notice served on each of them, that applications to have the documents stamped in the manner above set forth will be received by the Collectors having jurisdiction to a certain date, and that, if applications be not made within the prescribed time, the remission of the penalty imposed will be liable to be refused.

ORDERED that the foregoing Resolution be communicated to the several local Governments and Administrations for information and guidance.

SIR,—In acknowledging the receipt of your letter No. 4501, dated 27th December 1873, I am directed to state that fractions of the anna should, as far as may be convenient, be avoided; but that it is not desirable that the column for pies should be altogether abolished from the public accounts. If such fractions occur in the earlier stages of the accounts, it is necessary to record them, but in the later stages they may, as is now done, be thrown out with advantage.

Proceedings of a Meeting held at Purulia on the 11th March 1874, with a view to concert measures for the charitable relief of the inhabitants of the distressed portions of the Manbhoom District.

PRESENT:

Colonel E. A. Rowlatt, Deputy Commissioner, in the Chair.
F. Wilcox, Esq.,
Dr. W. Wilson,
Captain R. T. Hare,
R. D. Hare, Esq.,
Baboo N. C. Pal,
" G. Mookerjee,
" Bunkoo Beharee Surkar,
Moonshee Neeamutoollah, and many other influential residents of Pulalia.

Colonel Rowlatt opened the proceedings by reviewing the state of the district. He set before the meeting that, though no cases of starvation had yet occurred, reports had been received, shewing that food was no longer procurable in parts of Pandra Pergunnah and about Goomande; and, as prices had risen higher over about one-third of the district than they were in the corresponding month of 1866, it was much to be feared that severe distress would be felt by a large proportion of the population. Notwithstanding the relief that would be afforded by the famine works, and those which were being undertaken by private individuals on funds advanced by Government, much privation would ensue unless steps were taken to procure and arrange for the distribution of food, either gratuitously or at a reasonable price, throughout the north-east portion of the district.

The meeting had been convened in order that a District Committee might be constituted; and it was urged that it was important to commence operations at once. Members were therefore called upon to contribute sufficient funds to enable the Committee to set about the purchase of rice without delay.

Baboo Gunganund Mookerjee spoke to the same effect in Bengalee.

A subscription list was circulated among the meeting, and donations to the amount of Rs. 848 collected.

The Chairman then proposed, and it was unanimously carried, that the following members should be elected to form the District Committee with Colonel E. A. Rowlatt, Deputy Magistrate, as President:—

F. Wilcox, Esq.
Dr. W. Wilson.
Revd. H. Onasch.
R. D. Hare, Esq.
Baboo Nobin Chunder Pal.
" Gunganund Mookerjee.
Baboo Hangsessor Mookerjee.
" Gomah Churn Roy.
Moonshee Neamutoollah.
Baboo Doorga Doss Mookerjee.
Kirtee Chund Chowdhry.
Baboo Hurree Mohun Ghose.

The meeting was then dissolved.

E. A. ROWLATT, Col., Deputy Commissioner, President of District Relief Committee, Manbhoom.

WILLIAM WILSON, Surgeon.
Secretary and Treasurer of Manbhoom Relief Committee.

3. That each member of the general committee should exert himself to collect subscriptions from all his friends and dependents, and also should supply all information in his power to the working committee indicative of the existence of distress.

It was arranged that the first meeting of the executive committee should be held the following day.

The proceedings terminated with a vote of thanks to the Chair.

H. H. RISLEY, Secretary, District Famine Relief Committee.

Proceedings of Executive Committee held on March 7th.

PRESENT :

H. L. Harrison, Esq., Magistrate and Collector.
Colonel J. D. Swayne, District Engineer.
C. P. Macaulay, Esq., District Superintendent of Police.
Mr. Anderson.
Dr Bachelor.
Baboo Kally Prosonno Roy Chowdhry, Deputy Collector and Deputy Magistrate.
„ Jogendronath Rai.
H. H. Risley, Esq., Secretary.

The chief question discussed was the nature of the operations which the relief committee should undertake,—a provision, which at present seems sufficient, having been made by Government for providing labor on roads and other works for all those capable of labor. The committee saw no reason for doing more in this direction than asking to be constantly informed of the amount of labor seeking relief, to enable it to judge of the progress of distress.

The question of laying in reserve stocks of rice for the supply of food was one of greater difficulty. The Magistrate contended that if scarcity of food was not certain in the thana of Bheempore and Jhargram, it was at least highly probable, and that the committee ought to be on their guard against this contingency.

He pointed out (1) that the crop of the present year had been very bad in those parts, a six-anna crop being a sanguine estimate; (2) that when he visited those tracts in December he could hear of no reserve of any consequence from the previous year's crop, and certainly even the better classes a few weeks after the crop was gathered were consuming it; (3) that it was beyond question that considerable exportation had taken place into the east of the district, after the crop had been cut.

It followed from this that the present year's crop would not suffice for the consumption of the population, even allowing for the economy which want and high prices would no doubt induce.

On the other hand, no importation agency existed, and the value of money was relatively so much higher there than in Midnapore, that it would not pay to import.

In support of these views he produced Mr. Herschel's famine report of 1866, and read extracts showing (1) that while the crop in the rest of Midnapore was worse in that year than in this, it was not so in the jungle mehals, but was about the same; (2) that in excusing his own inaction at first, Mr. Herschel dwelt with much force on the fact that up to April and May in that year neither planters, missionaries, police officers, or natives anticipated any scarcity of food in the jungle mehals, till they suddenly found that the famine was upon them,—hence, that the similarly favorable signs this year ought not to be too much relied on; (3) that in that year, even when the famine was at its height, the trade could not be induced to import even a maund of rice; when the Midnapore market and their regular lines of business were so prosperous the traders declined to enter upon new lines; (4) that in that year while relief was at first distributed over the whole district, it was rapidly abandoned in all other places except the jungle mehals and the town of Midnapore, as other places did not need it.

After discussing the question the committee came to the conclusion—

(a) As the principal crop of 1873 has been better over the rest of Midnapore than that of 1865, and as no scarcity of food was experienced elsewhere than in the jungle mehals in 1866, the contingency of scarcity of food elsewhere in 1874 is so remote as not at present to excite any apprehension.

(b) That as the crop in the jungle mehals was not better in 1873 than in 1865, it is safer to take steps to supplement the food-supply in these parts if necessary.

The fact that in 1866 rice was in March 2½ seers to the rupee cheaper in Jhargram than in Midnapore, while in the present year it is already selling for the same price, was noticed as shewing that, relatively to the rest of the district, they are worse off now than in that year.

14 to 11½.
18 to 18.

(c) It was agreed that advantage ought to be taken of the present reaction in the market (due no doubt to the proximity of the March kist) to purchase and store rice, while cheap, to the extent of 5,000 maunds, if procurable without influencing the market.

Secondly, the provision of assistance to distressed classes during the scarcity was considered. It was agreed unanimously that the only classes needing immediate assistance were the weavers, to be found in considerable numbers in the large towns of Ghattal and Chundrokonah thanas.

It was also agreed that the best form in which assistance could be given would be the supplying them with thread for weaving as an advance, as otherwise they had to obtain this from mohajuns on unfavourable terms.

Secondly, the securing to them a ready and immediate sale of their cloth at a fair price, even though that might entail some loss on the committee.

For the rest it was decided to organise machinery for obtaining early intimation of distress over the whole district, but not to initiate at once any further measures.

Having thus determined what kind of relief it will be necessary to give, the committee proceeded to make a distribution of work:

As regards the relief in the jungle mehals, Baboo Kallyprosonno Roy Chowdhry undertook to buy gradually 5,000 maunds of rice in Midnapore, with funds advanced by the committee. Mr. Anderson agreed to provide for the transit and storing of all grain required for mofussil distribution. It appeared that there will be no difficulty in procuring pack-bullocks for carriage, and, as a first instalment, grain will be stored in each of Messrs Watson's factories at the rate of 50 maunds in each factory. It will be under the charge of the factory employés, and no extra establishment of guards will be necessary for its safe keeping. Such grain as it is necessary to keep in Midnapore will be stored in the granary of the district jail. It is believed that it is now empty, and the Secretary was requested to apply for its use.

Mr. Anderson also agreed to procure information from all the managers and assistants of Messrs. Watson as to the state of the rice market, the labor market, and the existence of distress in their neighbourhood.

The Magistrate and Collector agreed to arrange at once for the establishment of branch committees in the towns of Chundrokonah, Ghattal, Ramjeebunpore, and Keerpoy for superintending the relief of the weavers.

The District Superintendent agreed, in the event of his assuming the post of Vice-Chairman of the Road Committee, to produce regular and correct statements of the number of coolies working on the roads under him. The District Engineer agreed to provide similar statements for the roads under him.

Doctor Bachelor agreed to obtain periodical reports from all his Sonthal schools, shewing whether there was any scarcity of food, demand for employment, or other distress in their neighbourhood. He also undertook, in the event of the Civil Surgeon obtaining leave of absence, to superintend the sanitation of any relief depôts which should be necessary in Midnapore.

Baboo Jogendro Nath Roy, whose house is in Chundrokonah thana, where his family are influential zemindars, agreed to make prompt enquiries regarding the best means of procuring thread and distributing it to the local committees, also regarding the best manner of selling the cloth when made.

Mr. Risley consented to act as Secretary to the executive as well as general committee, but, as the correspondence would be heavy, it was agreed to ask Baboo Neelmadhub Banerjee, Head Master of the Normal School, to accept the post of Assistant Secretary.

As it was considered very important that a thorough system of accounts should be inaugurated, it was agreed to ask the Joint-Magistrate to undertake their supervision, and also to issue cheques on the treasury according to rule for all authorized disbursements. The same officer should undertake to see that all subscriptions received are immediately paid into the treasury.

The entertainment of a clerk on Rs. 12 per mensem was sanctioned, also the entertainment of peons, as guards of rice, was sanctioned when necessary.

The Secretary was requested to report all these proceedings to the Commissioner and, through him, to the Central Committee, and to ask that a supplementary grant may be made to this district, partly because the relief of the weavers will prove expensive, as it is estimated that over 2,000 of them will require help, and partly because several of the large landowners of this district, notably Messrs. Jardine, Skinner (Watson & Co.), Rajah Jotendro Mohun Tagore, Baboo Joykissen Mookherjee, and Baboo Heralall Seal, have sent their entire subscriptions to the Central Committee.

Since the meeting of the executive committee detailed instructions for the guidance of relief committees have been received from Government. Those instructions will be laid before the executive committee at their next meeting.

The next meeting was fixed for the 14th, Saturday next.

H. H. RISLEY, Secretary, District Famine Relief Committee.

Acts of the Legislative Council of India.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGIS LATIVE DEPARTMENT.

[Third Publication.]

The following Act of the Governor-General of India in Council received the assent of His Excellency the Governor-General on the 24th February 1874, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

Act No. III of 1874.

An Act to explain and amend the law relating to certain Married Women, and for other purposes.

Preamble.

Whereas it is expedient to make such provision as hereinafter appears for the enjoyment of wages and earnings by women married before the first day of January 1866, and for insurances on lives by persons married before or after that day :

And whereas by the Indian Succession Act, 1865, section four, it is enacted that no person shall by marriage acquire any interest in the property of the person whom he or she marries, nor become incapable of doing any act in respect of his or her own property, which he or she could have done, if unmarried :

And whereas by force of the said Act all women to whose marriages it applies are absolute owners of all property vested in, or acquired by, them, and their husbands do not by their marriage acquire any interest in such property, but the said Act does not protect such husbands from liabilities on account of the debts of their wives contracted before marriage, and does not expressly provide for the enforcement of claims by or against such wives ;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

I.—Preliminary.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Married Women's Property Act, 1874."

Extent and application.

2. It extends to the whole of British India, and, so far as regards subjects of Her Majesty, to the dominions of Princes and States in India in alliance with Her Majesty.

But nothing herein contained applies to any married woman who at the time of her marriage professed the Hindu, Muhammadan, Buddhist, Sikh, or Jaina religion, or whose husband, at the time of such marriage, professed any of those religions.

And the Governor-General in Council may from time to time, by order, either retrospectively from the passing of this Act or prospectively, exempt from the operation of all or any of the provisions of this Act the members of any race, sect or tribe, or part of a race, sect or tribe, to whom he may consider it impossible or inexpedient to apply such provisions.

The Governor-General in Council may also revoke any such order, but not so that the revocation shall have any retrospective effect.

All orders and revocations under this section shall be published in the Gazette of India.

The fourth section of the said Indian Succession Act shall not apply, and shall be deemed never to have applied, to any marriage one or both of the parties to which professed at the time of the marriage, the Hindu, Muhammadan, Buddhist, Sikh, or Jaina religion.

Commencement.

3. This Act shall come into force on the passing thereof.

II.—Married Women's wages and earnings.

Married women's earnings to be their separate property.

4. The wages and earnings of any married women acquired or gained by her after the passing of this Act, in any employment, occupation, or trade carried on by her and not by her husband, and also any money or other property so acquired by her through the exercise of any literary, artistic, or scientific skill,

and all savings from and investments of such wages, earnings, and property,

shall be deemed to be her separate property, and her receipts alone shall be good discharges for such wages, earnings, and property.

III.—Insurances by Wives and Husbands.

Married woman may effect policy of insurance.

5. Any married woman may effect a policy of insurance on her own behalf and independently of her husband; and the same and all benefit thereof, if expressed on the face of it to be so effected, shall enure as her separate property, and the contract evidenced by such policy shall be as valid as if made with an unmarried woman.

Insurance by husband for benefit of wife.

6. A policy of insurance effected by any married man on his own life, and expressed on the face of it to be for the benefit of his wife, or of his wife and children, or any of them, shall enure and be deemed to be a trust for the benefit of his wife, or of his wife and children, or any of them, according to the interest so expressed, and shall not, so long as any object of the trust remains, be subject to the control of the husband, or to his creditors, or form part of his estate.

When the sum secured by the policy becomes payable, it shall, unless special trustees are duly appointed to receive and hold the same, be paid to the Official Trustee of the Presidency in which the office at which the insurance was effected is situate, and shall be received and held by him upon the trusts expressed in the policy, or such of them as are then existing.

And in reference to such sum he shall stand in the same position in all respects as if he had been duly appointed trustee thereof by a High Court, under Act No. XVII of 1864 (to constitute an Office of Official Trustee), section ten.

Nothing herein contained shall operate to destroy or impede the right of any creditor to be paid out of the proceeds of any policy of assurance which may have been effected with intent to defraud creditors.

IV.—Legal proceedings by and against Married Women.

Married women may take legal proceedings.

7. A married woman may maintain a suit in her own name for the recovery of property of any description which, by force of the said Indian Succession Act, 1865, or of this Act, is her separate property; and she shall have, in her own name, the same remedies, both civil and criminal, against all persons, for the protection and security of such property, as if she were unmarried, and she shall be liable to such suits, processes and orders in respect of such property as she would be liable to if she were unmarried.

Wife's liability for post-nuptial debts.

8. If a married woman (whether married before or after the first day of January 1866) possesses separate property, and if any person enters into a contract with her with reference to such property, or on the faith that her obligation arising out of such contract will be satisfied out of her separate property, such person shall be entitled to sue her, and, to the extent of her separate property, to recover against her whatever he might have recovered in such suit had she been unmarried at the date of the contract and continued unmarried at the execution of the decree:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall affect the liability of a husband for debts contracted by his wife's agency, express or implied, or render a married woman liable to arrest or to imprisonment in execution of a decree.

V.—Husband's liability for Wife's debts.

Husband not liable for wife's antenuptial debts.

9. A husband married after the thirty-first day of December 1865 shall not by reason only of such marriage be liable to the debts of his wife contracted before marriage, but the wife shall be liable to be sued for, and shall, to the extent of her separate property, be liable to satisfy such debts as if she had continued unmarried:

Proviso.

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall affect any suit instituted before the passing of this Act, nor invalidate any contract into which a husband may, before the passing of this Act, have entered in consideration of his wife's antenuptial debts.

RESOLUTION.—Under Act X of 1862, any deed, instrument, or writing made by or on behalf of Government was under certain conditions exempt from stamp duty. Act X of 1862 was repealed by Act No. XVIII of 1869, which came into operation from 1st January 1870, and the exemption in favor of such instruments was thereby withdrawn. This change in the law appears to have been overlooked in many instances, and deeds executed on behalf of Government, in favor of purchasers of waste lands have been executed on unstamped paper.

2. A question having been raised as to the best means of giving validity to documents thus executed, His Excellency the Governor-General in Council is pleased to point out that they may be stamped by Collectors in exercise of the powers conferred on them by Section 24, Clause (a) of the General Stamp Act XVIII of 1869, on payment of the proper penalty, and that the penalty incurred may be remitted under Section 42 of the Act.

3. The Governor-General in Council is accordingly pleased to suggest that the holders of such unstamped documents should be informed by notification in the various local Gazettes, and, when practicable, by notice served on each of them, that applications to have the documents stamped in the manner above set forth will be received by the Collectors having jurisdiction to a certain date, and that, if applications be not made within the prescribed time, the remission of the penalty imposed will be liable to be refused.

ORDERED that the foregoing resolution be communicated to the several local Governments and Administrations for information and guidance.

RESOLUTION.

The 6th March 1874.

READ the following papers relating to the adoption of a uniform system in the orthography of Indian proper names when rendered in the Roman character :—

Letter from the Government of India, Department of Agriculture, Revenue, and Commerce, No. $\frac{4}{97}$, dated 28th February 1872.

| Letter from | ditto, | No. 350, dated 26th August 1873, and enclosure. |
| Resolution by | ditto, | No. $\frac{1}{317}$, dated 26th August 1873. |

His Excellency the Governor-General in Council has intimated that, while Her Majesty's Government have desired that the system of transliteration prescribed by the Government of India shall as a general rule be applied to names of places, they have also directed that the established spelling of names of well-known places should be retained. His Excellency in Council also desires to leave considerable latitude to Local Governments in respect to the extent to which the change should be immediately introduced. Accordingly a list of names of the less well-known places, properly transliterated, is under preparation. In the meantime the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to direct the immediate publication of the following list of well-known names, of which the spelling has been so long settled by usage, that it is not desirable to make any change. All officers under this Government are enjoined to follow in their official communications the spelling given below.

The opportunity is taken of publishing a list of certain vernacular terms relating to offices, tenures, agriculture, &c., which are ordinarily used in English correspondence, in which the spelling now given should be adhered to by all officers.

Circular No. 9.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

Calcutta, the 24th March 1874.

The attention of Collectors and Treasury Officers is hereby directed to the Notification by the Government of India, No. 44, dated 10th January 1867, Financial Department, making it optional on the part of holders of Government Promissory Notes to register them at the Bank of Bengal, in the "Book Debt Account," receiving Stock Certificates in exchange for the notes. As the certificates are not transferable by endorsement, they form a safe and simple way of keeping Trust Funds in Government paper, without incurring the expense of the commission charged by the Banks for the custody of Promissory Notes. An instance has recently occurred in which expense was needlessly incurred from oversight of the Notification referred to. Officers in charge of Trust Funds are therefore reminded of the existence of this means of providing for their security.

From—The Secretary to the Government of India,
To—The Chief Secretary to the Government of Bombay.

SIR,—In acknowledging the receipt of your letter No. 4501, dated 27th December 1873, I am directed to state that fractions of the anna should, as far as may be convenient, be avoided; but that it is not desirable that the column for pies should be altogether abolished from the public accounts. If such fractions occur in the earlier stages of the accounts, it is necessary to record them, but in the later stages they may, as is now done, be thrown out with advantage.
